“ Dear Lord, please comfort those in grief,
Love them, lift them, give relief
For loss they've suffered, sadness felt;
Make this sorrow slowly melt.

Lord, let happy memories ease, Creating peace like a gentle breeze,
And as you help them make it through. Draw them closer, Lord, to you.

our family will miss morlo, He kept us crunk, laughing.

Much Love

“ I first want to say sorry to the mccaster family. I met domorlo in downtown cape, he seen me and my friend and him and his friend came over and introduced their selves. They invited us to play pool and ever since the bond was there. All he ever did was talk about his beautiful little girl and how he treasured his friendship with his one and only true friend. He always talked highly about the people he loved. He was big hearted person, full of life, joy, and laughter. Being around him was never a dull moment. One thing for sure you would know when morlo was anywhere near because you would hear him before you would see him. Im just hurt behind the fact that i build a bond eith him and he got snatched from us so soon. His spirit will live forever. Rest easy morlo.
