

Donald Alan Mann

August 8, 1962 - January 19, 2022

Donald Alan Mann, 59, of Jackson, Missouri died Wednesday, January 19, 2022 at Landmark Hospital in Cape Girardeau.

He was born August 8, 1962 in Madison, Wisconsin to Paul Martin and Janice Ellen Sherman Mann.

He loved camping, gardening, collecting movies, tinkering with motors, but fishing was his passion.

Survivors include two sons, Paul Mann and Travis Mann both of Jackson, Missouri; two daughters, Brandy (Chris) Powles of Millersville, Missouri and Rachel (Cory) Riffe of Wolf Lake, Indiana; a sister, Polly (Mike) Winchester of Jackson, Missouri; six grandchildren, Gabriel, Elle, Ashton, Michael, Theodore, Jakob; seven nieces and nephews; and nine great-nieces and -nephews.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a sister, Jolynn VonHasseln.

There will be no services.

Online condolences may be made at www.fordandsonsfuneralhome.com.

Ford & Sons Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Tribute Wall

BO

“ Sorry for your loss, I really liked Don when he was up here . Brice Overman

Brice Overmam - January 21, 2022 at 08:33 AM

LS

“ It seems like a lifetime ago but i just knew Don as my friend Pollys brother who drove around Jackson in his gremlin. Then he went on to be my brother inlaw and the father of my Wonderful nieces and nephews. Its sad to see him pass 😞

Lisa soares - January 20, 2022 at 06:33 PM

LM

“ Oh how the heart aches when God calls another sweet heart home. Love you all and praying comfort in this time he was an awesome man.

Libby Sherman Mckinley - January 20, 2022 at 06:10 PM

BM

so sorry to see our neighbor passing. Don was so easy to talk to and friendly and funny. I will miss our chats and pray that the sons and grandson we know will find peace in time with him going. I pray all is well wi

Bill and Pamela McGhee - January 21, 2022 at 01:06 PM