

Donne Balee Chamberlain Williams

December 17, 1936 - August 9, 2017

Donne Balee Chamberlain Williams, of Cape Girardeau, MO, died peacefully in her sleep on August 9, 2017 at Chateau Girardeau, where she was a resident. She was 80 years old.

Donne grew up in St. Louis and moved to Cape Girardeau to attend Southeast Missouri State University. She subsequently studied art and fashion design in London, where her mother was an exchange teacher.

Donne was active in the community and volunteered in various organizations, such as Meals on Wheels. She was a Cub Scout leader and an active member of the First Presbyterian Church, where she taught Sunday School and Vacation Bible School. Donne is a former member of the Daughters of the American Revolution (DAR) and the Daughters of American Colonists (DAC). She was also a member of P.E.O.

Donne was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She was a warm hostess, excellent cook and a friend to all. Her greatest gift was the endless love she gave to her family and friends.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband of nearly 60 years, Roberts Thomas Williams and her brother, Phillip Safford Chamberlain. Survivors include her son, Greg Williams, and his wife, Holly Williams, of Dallas, Texas; her daughter, Ellie Williams, and her husband, Kip Hamby, of St. Louis, Missouri; her granddaughter, Jordan Williams, and grandson, Blake Williams, of Dallas; and grandsons, Mark and Nathan Clinton, of St. Louis.

A funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Sunday, August 13th at First Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. Karen Dumey officiating followed by a reception at the church. Graveside services will be at Cape County Memorial Park in Cape Girardeau following the reception.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to First Presbyterian Church at 235 Broadway St., Cape Girardeau, MO 63701 or your charity of choice.
