“ *Dear Elsie and Family,
Words are so hollow to express the loss you are feeling. I am stranded in Puerto Rico. Please know that I will be with you in Spirit each and every minute on Tuesday, as you honor her life.*

It is beginning to rain here today, perhaps a symbol of the tears we are all shedding for her passing.

I have many fond memories of her, from coming to Rapid City to care for Mary during her life threatening bout with breast cancer, to much happier times when she came and celebrated life with us in Puerto Rico.

Geneie was a wonderful caretaker, helping Mary one year dealing with Bessie, who would come to Puerto Rico with Mary and I every year. We chuckled to ourselves at Bessie's complaint privately to Mary I that, "I couldn't get any sleep last night, Geneie snores so loud!!"

I also have very fond memories of the family gathering on December 31, 1999 at her house in Dexter, when we brought in a new millennial age, and computers were destined to bring the world to a halt.

I sincerely pray to our God that he will cradle you and others in His Hand, and take some of the pain we are feeling, to lighten the load.

Love

Richard Horkey
