“ Mike and Sherry, I am so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. I have known Dorothy for as long as I can remember. We were neighbors as kids and remained friends as we grew up. Lost contact with her and your dad as we all got older but have many fond memories of her. Except for the time my older sister and her decided to "style" my extremely long blonde hair into what was an early Marge Simpson hairdo. My hair was piled so high on my head that I could not hold my head up straight. (I was about 8). And my mom nor I appreciated it when she has to try to comb it out. We had a lot of fun even though she was older then me. I know how much she loved your dad and you kids.
