

Dorothy McCormick

July 18, 2010

Dorothy Marie McCormick, 88, of Cape Girardeau, died Sunday, July 18, 2010 at the Ratliff Care Center. She was born April 7, 1922 in Brooklyn, N.Y., the daughter of Boleslaus J. and Leocadia Sienkowski Monkiewicz. She and Philip Benjamin Buchheit were married April 7, 1945 in Baltimore, MD. Of this union were born 9 children. Later, she married Charles E. McCormick June 28, 1969. Both husbands preceded her in death. Dorothy was a graduate of New Britain High School in Connecticut. She later attended Teachers College in New Britain. She was extensively active in the drama club in high school and later in the local New Britain Dramatic Club, playing the lead roles in among other things, "Joan of Arc" and "The Swan". She was also extremely gifted in music studying piano. Dorothy was a veteran of World War II, receiving her honorable discharge in January of 1945. Survivors include one living son, Paul (Sherry) Buchheit of Glen Allen; seven daughters, Phyllis (Brian) Duschell of Jackson, Ellen Vaught of Greensburg, Pa., Cheryl Buchheit of Jackson, Laura Zimmerman of Tallassee, Tenn., Anita (Mike) Hartle of Jackson, Sandra (Steve) Ressel of Cape Girardeau, and Karen (Rick) Schlosser of Scott City; 18 grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; one sister, Connie (Richard) Bailey of Madison, Conn.; and numerous nieces and nephews. She was also preceded in death by her parents, a son, Tracy Buchheit, two sisters, two granddaughters, and one grandson. Public visitation will be at 2 p.m. Sunday at Good Shepherd Lutheran Chapel followed by a memorial service at 3 p.m., with the Rev. Barry Pfanstiel officiating. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that memorials be made to Southeast Hospice.
