“ We so wanted to be at Dorothy's visitation and funeral but were out of town, so I would like to tell Paul and her family now what a special soul we considered this lady to be. Always friendly and kind, always ready to be of help - we should all aspire to imitate Dorothy's attitude toward life and her strong enduring faith. I looked forward to her annual delivery of all those extra wall calendars for use by ND faculty and staff! It was a small example of those little extras that Dorothy would not leave undone. What a sweet lady. What a wonderful life well lived. May God welcome her with great joy and console her family.
