“ I have such fond memories of Earl Wayne when we all lived on Bast Street. He walked over to our house in the evenings and have great time w/my dad (Wayne Estes). Earl had great sense of humor; had a big hearty laugh and beautiful blue eyes.

Sending prayers to Joan and all of his family,
Chuck and Kim (Estes) Crowden

“*Dear Joan and family, so sorry to see that your loving husband and father has passed! I was very surprised as I haven't seen you for a long time! Praying for God's grace and mercy of Peace throughout these very sad days ahead! I know you and your family have many memories to share as you have lived a very active life together since early childhood! Joan, you worked many years at our family's business Translectric, Tom and I appreciated all those years! We shared each other's family values, illnesses, sports activities and awards, marriages, birth's, life's challenges journeys etc...Know that my heart hurts for you all! God's blessings always with our love,
Lonnie and Sharon*
