“ Some people glide through life without being noticed. Edith was not one of them. She was kind, attentive, gracious, loving, dedicated, thoughtful and one of the best Christians we have had the pleasure to know.

“ I first met Edith when I was 19 years old and started playing the organ at Maple Avenue. She was the choir director at the time. She treated me as a fellow musician and friend and not just "a kid". I now realize what a special person it took to have that attitude. We became very good friends and enjoyed making music together for many years. As well as being a fine musician, Edith was a very good poet. I put one of her poems to music. We joked that we were "Ervin & Main", the new Rodgers & Hammerstein! I have many fond memories of Edith, Wilton and their family. Edith was a remarkable person and very special to me. Marge Main

“ Dear Joy and Family, You have been on my mind so much since hearing the news about your mom. Your folks always welcomed me to their home, Joy, way back when we were in high school and college together and even when I'd come back to Cape to visit. You are all in my thoughts and prayers during this tender time. Your mother was a lovely lady and will be missed. With my sympathy and love, Sheryl Buss
