“ Debbie, Cindy, & Chris, so very many of my favorite childhood memories involve your mother — trick or treating, riding rides at the Southeast District Fair, swimming in the river at Sam A Baker Park, and the list goes on & on. I can't even begin to express how much I admired your mother — her love for life, her wonderful laugh . . . The world was a brighter, better, more joy-filled place because of her. I didn't see that she had passed away until just now (late Sunday evening), and I'm so sorry that I was unable to come to the service and offer my condolences in person. I will keep the three of you and your families in my prayers. {{{{{{hugs}}}}}}

“ Dear Cynthia, Deborah and, Chris,
It is hard to give up a mother at any age. But just as she once held you in her arms warm and secure, so now is God holding her in the circle of His loving arms. What a comfort!
It is our prayer that your faith will give strength for each new day and that the loving memories that you shared will also bring comfort.
God's love and ours,

our daughters, Wendy and Kim
