Sister Eloise Hudson was one in a million. I have known her and her family for over thirty years. She always showed me and my family love. Sis. Eloise loved the Lord, her husband, her daughter, granddaughter, her family and I believe even her enemies. She lived a life of service and was always there to visit the sick and afflicted when one was in the hospital in Cape Girardeau. I will miss her hugs, her love, and her beautiful smile whenever we met. It was an honor to know this beautiful woman. Rest in Glory, Sis. Eloise. We will see you in the morning.
