

Eric Crow

December 23, 1979 - June 30, 2017

DALLAS, Texas - Eric Jason Crow, 37, formerly of Cape Girardeau and Jackson, passed away unexpectedly in his home in Dallas on Friday, June 30, 2017.

Eric attended Cape Girardeau and Jackson public schools through his elementary years before moving to Jackson, Mississippi, where he completed his education.

After high school, Eric, along with his parents, Bill and Carla (Buehler) Crow, both formerly of Cape Girardeau and Jackson, moved to the Dallas area. Eric became actively involved in the restaurant and hospitality industry in the area, recently serving as restaurant manager at the iconic Gilley's of Dallas.

Eric's continual smile, quick wit and engaging personality earned him many friends and served him well throughout his life. Those traits and his affection for those around him will be sorely missed.

Eric is survived by his parents; his grandparents John and Judy Buehler of Oak Ridge; numerous cousins, aunts and uncles, and a circle of friends, all of whom will miss him greatly.

He was preceded in death by his grandmother, Maxine Crow of Cape Girardeau.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday at Ford and Sons Funeral Home in Jackson.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that well-wishers make a donation to their local animal shelter in Eric's honor.

“ To my brother and his wife, no words can say what you must feel or to ease the pain, no parent wants to beat their child to the finish line, but sometimes God's plans are just that, and though Eric was taken before his time here on earth, we will see each other again some day soon. He will be missed by all that knew and had the honor of being around him. Out deepest sympathies go out to you .

Bill and Carla I was so sorry to hear of Eric's passing. I still remember the little boy he was from Associate Commercial days. My thoughts and prayers are with you both.
