

Everett Wayne Norris

October 24, 2012

Everett Wayne Norris, born December 28, 1966, in Cape Girardeau, Missouri, died on October 24, 2012. He had resided at 1220 Bloomfield Road, in Cape Girardeau. He previously resided in Tishomingo, Oklahoma, where he graduated from Tishomingo High School. Mr. Norris, who was known as a compassionate and fun loving man, was the beloved brother of Virginia Sue Roberts and Douglas Gene Norris. Mr. Norris was known to have commented on how proud he was of his nephew and four nieces, whom he loved dearly. He also would often brag about his five great-nephews, and loved to tell stories about their antics. Mr. Norris grew up playing music with his family, and this love of music followed him throughout his lifetime. Although, he was most accomplished at playing the drums, he also could be heard strumming a handy guitar. Mr. Norris is preceded in death by his mother, Frances Ida Rau, his father, Eugene Norris, his stepfather, Richard Rau, and an infant brother, Charles Norris. Mr. Norris is survived by his sister and brother, his nephew and nieces, and his great-nephews. A visitation service will be held at Ford and Sons Funeral Home, 1001 Mt. Auburn Road in Cape Girardeau, from 3:00-5:30 p.m. on October 30, with a service to immediately follow at 5:30. The service will be officiated by Pastor Douglas Breite, of Trinity Lutheran Church. Memorial contributions may be sent to the Humane Society.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing a brother. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly Father promises us that very soon he will 'wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more.' (Revelation 21:4) What a wonderful day that will be!
