“ Dear Norma, Pam and Trish, I am so sorry for the loss of your father. He was a great and very kind man. So many memories of growing up as neighbors and friends. He always kept an eye on the old neighborhood even when we kids were all long gone. He helped our mom so much and she always said how grateful she was to have him as a neighbor and friend. One of the last of the old Good Hope/Sheridan parents, may he rest in peace and may the Lord shine His light upon him as He welcomes his hardworking and reliable servant, Evertt, back home.

The Robbison Family. So Sorry Uncle Evertt has passed away. He was a wonderful man and we all have great memories of him. He was a loving and caring man. He does have a living brother who lives in Dexter Mo. and his wife and family who all love him very much. Also Evertt Robinson's Mothers name was Annie Mae Skaggs. Sorry the funeral home miss informed the paper on these couple of things, God Bless and be with you all at this time.

Unfortunately my dad's brother, Homer Lee Kent was not listed as his surviving brother. MyUncle Homer Lee and my dad were as close as brothers could be. There are so many memories and so much love shared between them.

Lucky to know this man. Blessed to call him Grandpa. Even more blessed that my little boy got to know him and call him Grandpa Robbison too.

My husband Don shook his hand and told him "Always a Pleasure" everytime they parted ways, (I listed him in our family name line too, but it cut off--oops) But I know he was fond of Grandpa too and I was thankful that Grandpa took him in as a bonus grandson.
