“ To Fern family and friends, I grew up across the street from your mother and dad. (Pat Miller Williams) daughter. Always adored your mother and dad (MAC) and they were such a wonderful couple. An inspiration to many in our Edgewood family. Our prayers and thoughts are with all of you. Your parents and especially your mother was a inspiration to many. Living and caring for your father and still independent after sooo many years. A lovely , classy lady. Kind to all . Loving to many. She I know is in Gods Kingdom and shining and smiling healthy at the wonderful family her legacy. God Bless all of you. John and Cathy Dirnberger and family

“ Fern was a great friend to Davids mom, as they looked for a new flower or "pretty" rock. I will always remember her laugh. May God comfort you with precious memories.
