“ We greeted the news of Frances' death with mixed emotions - sad because we knew you would miss her and happy because we knew her faith and that she was now reunited with Ralph in the joys of heaven.

“ Thoughts and prayers go to all of you - Ralph, Karen, James, Don, Janet and your families. I have recalled so many memories of all of you and your parents since Karen called me. Being at your home, riding in the car to all sorts of activities. Your mother always had a beautiful smile on her face. I am sure you will miss her, but you have wonderful memories to keep her alive in your heart and mind. Love to you all. Jim and Phyllis Hansen

“ To Janet and the family, I'm so sorry to hear of your mom's passing. I remember her smiling face from so many days at Trinity Lutheran School. And I know my dad appreciated her as his 'right hand man' during his years working with her there when he was principal. My prayers of comfort are with all of you.
