“ To my dear friends Jeff, Bev, Walter, Ken, Roger, Steve and Teresa. My deepest condolences to you on the loss of your mother. I just learned of her passing this morning (Monday) otherwise I would have been there for her service. I will always cherish the childhood memories of time spent at the house on South Sprigg Street. Your mom always treated me like I was part of your family, and she was such a special friend to my mom. What a wonderful legacy she leaves behind in you and your families. I greatly enjoyed seeing you guys at my father's funeral. Thank you for sharing your mom and family with me. Pat Shannon
