“ Judy, we were sad to hear of Gary's passing and have kept you in our prayers. During our four years in Cape, we considered you guys our best friends. We know Gary will be keeping his "Porsche" light on in heaven waiting for the rest of us to join him for a cup of coffee.

“ The world is a little less bright now that Gary has passed on. So many fond memories. He was our "Wedding photographer" when we eloped. He became our landlord when we needed to find a place to live. He allowed us to use his office to study in when we were in Nursing school. Gary grilled a steak better than the finest restaurant and the pots of coffee we shared while solving the world's ills are enumerable. Gary had the sharpest mind and quickest wit I've ever known. He may have taught Physics, but he could tell a joke better than anyone on late night television. Didn't matter if you'd heard the joke a million times, you were still hanging onto every word, hungering for that "Punch line" (LOL)! Rest in peace, my friend, and save a cup of coffee, a joke, and a few Reese's for me when I get there
