

George Bert Cannon

August 20, 2014

GEORGE BERT Bud CANNON, 75 of Wappapello, MO, passed away Wednesday, August 20, 2014 at his home. Mr. Cannon was born November 20, 1938 in Saint Louis, Missouri to George Marion Cannon and Ethel Lorraine Rhodes. He was owner operator of Cannon Trucking Company, and Cannon Logistics, LLC and worked in the transportation and trucking industry for 51 years. He was a fan of his native city's St. Louis Cardinal's baseball team, enjoyed visiting with friends, cooking shrimp, and listening to his favorite song Fools Rush In ballad version 1960 by Frank Sinatra, The Gaither's Gospel Music, Marty Robbins, Jim Reeves and loved his dog Pee Nut. As a young man he moved from St. Louis to Jackson, Missouri, resided with family, Jim and Verna Rhodes, where he met and married Sharon Sue Smith. Survivors include two children: U.S. Naval Officer of 22 years, Sr. Master Chief Clinton Roy Cannon, working and residing in Shanghai China, and Charlotte Fay Cannon of Scott City, Missouri; four grandchildren, Sarah N. Cannon, Wendy A. Cannon, Chase A. Cannon and Casey C. Cannon; seven great grandchildren; half-brothers, Bill Slavin, Vaughn Slavin; half-sister, Lorraine (Lori) Slavin; aunt, Betty Mae (Tony) Chapman of Santa Barbara; niece, Lisa Marie Cannon of Los Angeles; Rhodes Family - favorite cousin and brother by choice, Deacon Jim (Ruth) Rhodes, Mark (Linda) Rhodes, Marilyn (Dr. D) Horseley, Jan (Wilbur) Rhodes - Ness, Carol (Joe) Adkins, Marlene (Michael) Ray, Kenneth (Susan) Rhodes, and many other Rhodes family; cousins on Cannon side, Carolyn Cannon, Barb Dattilo, Rick (Dana)

Cannon; many other Cannon family. He was preceded in death by his parents, George M. Cannon and Ethel L. Rhodes-Slavin; sister, Margie L. Cannon of California; step-father, Bill Slavin; Rhodes family aunts and uncles, Mary Helen (Orville) Randoll, Mildred Rhodes, Virginia Jean Rhodes, James Bert Rhodes, Jr., Hubert Wilson Rhodes, William Martin Rhodes; cousin, Robert Martin (Bobby) Sr.; Cannon cousins, Donnie Cannon and Jack Cannon; his lifetime beloved best friend Roy (Shirley) Murakami of Cape Girardeau, Missouri. A 12 noon visitation and 1 pm memorial service will be held Saturday, September 6, 2014 at the Lakeland Assembly of God Church in Wappapello, Highway D., and north of Pisos Road with Rev. Arvin Haynes officiating. SPECIAL THANKS: His children wish to send a sincere special thank you to those who took the time and made relentless efforts to care for their father, ♦Bud♦, through their fathers tragic accident, and last year battle with cancer. To the Rhodes Family, including cousin, Jim (Ruth) Rhodes and Jan and Wilbur Ness who devoted their time, love and tender care during the course of their fathers last three years of his life, and other. Ford & Sons Mt. Auburn Funeral Home has been entrusted with arrangements.

Tribute Wall

SH

“ My deepest sympathy goes out to the Cannon Cousins. I know most of you from way back when They lived on Miami Street. Most of you probably don't remember me and my Brother Richard Soukup. I remember all of you. My Brother Richard passed away 16 years ago. Buddy used to call my Brother and his wife Anita every now and then. After Ricrdard died he started calling Anita and then me. Buddy found out that my Husband Bob was sick in the hospital and past away he started calline me throughout the years every so often and the last phone call I had from him was on Aug 3. He was going in the Hospital for some extreme chemo and he would get back to me later. He never did last week I was wondering why. Had a strange feeling and looked up to see if I could find his obit by chance and sure enough I did and I was shocked. Thought Floyd Cannon would have had my phone number and called me. Buddy is at peace now and is suffering anymore. RIP old friend. I will miss your phone calls. Shirley Soukup Heaton

Shirley Heaton - May 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM

CR

“ RIP. You are in a better place now. Peace be with you. Prayer to your loved ones and family still here on earth. You were one of a kind.

Cindy Randoll - January 03, 2015 at 12:00 AM

KD

“ Roy, I'm so sorry to hear of your Dad's passing. I just wish that you and your family have peace of mind knowing that he is not suffering and is in heaven and without pain. God bless!!!

Kimberley Davidson - January 09, 2014 at 12:00 AM