“ George and Germaine were members of Grace UMC along with my husband and myself. We loved to hear of their love of square dancing as I recall. They were a special couple....coming to our monthly lunches where Germaine loved the ice cream. After Germaine died, George and I would laugh about her love of ice cream.

George was a warm and generous person...stopping to talk to everyone or extend a happy day to people who passed him in the halls. My cousin shared her SEMissourian with him. He always asked about people in the church...sharing information about their friendships and how much they meant to him. He had a twinkle in his eyes and warmth in his smile that touched us all when we saw him. Our world was a better place with him in it.

Please call on the church if we can help in anyway.

Blessings, Adelaide Parsons
