

George Wayne Webber

July 27, 1938 - August 9, 2025

George Wayne Webber, 87, of Sachse, Texas died Saturday, August 9, 2025 at Methodist Richardson Medical Center in Richardson, Texas.

He was born July 27, 1938 in Rector, Arkansas to Clifford Paul and Zephyr Wynona Binkley Webber.

George married the first love of his life, Joann Ford on November 5, 1957. She had him for 57 years. Joann passed away in 2013.

After Joann's death George found the second love of his life. He and Patricia Jo Wiggins were married June 22, 2018 in Plano, Texas. Patricia had him for 7 years.

George was a tool and dye engineer at Chrysler.

George loved fishing and hunting. He often visited Duck Creek in Puxico Missouri in his younger days. He loved music, the St. Louis Blues and the St. Louis Cardinals. He was a collector of knives and coins. He loved World War II history.

In his later years George particularly enjoyed playing chess and watching the Cardinal on TV with Patricia. He found the joy of travel and loved his trips to Europe and cruises with Pat and Kim. A favorite part was going to the spa on the cruise ships.

He was a loving husband and father and never met a stranger. He was loved by all who knew him.

Survivors include his wife, Patricia Jo Webber of Sachse, Texas; a daughter, Kimberly (Moe) Farazian of Plano, Texas; two sons, Kevin (Susan) Webber of Plano, Texas and Farrell (Fran) Webber of Saint Louis, Missouri; Cindy (Jim) Rountree, Shellie (Brett) Cordell, Emily (Tim) Bond, Elizabeth (Michael) Allen, Makinzie (Michael) Leigh-Manuel.

“ Gramps and I always bonded over computer games. He showed me how to be super good at snood, dig dug, galaxia, spider and solitaire. We would definitely have snood competitions in his office late at night, between the rook tournaments, of course. He taught me how to fish, how to hold a BB gun, how to not be afraid of thunderstorms, he knew it all. Grandpa had a huge heart of gold, he loved his entire family so deeply. I'll never forget his stories, his collections, the wisdom he shared was like none other.
