“ Many fond memories of “little “ Jerry . He was a great guy. He had a smile that could light up the darkest of rooms. Lots of fun times in the neighborhood as a kid. Heaven truly has gained an angel. Deepest sympathies to Butch and family.

“ Jerry is such a kind person; He is a great supervisor and a loving soul. All my prayers are with the family. I always remember our first meeting at Austin and having a good conversation. I learned a lot in the short span with you Jerry. I will always make you proud in life. Wherever you are, God bless you. May your soul rest in peace. Thanks to Jerry's family for taking care and giving him a beautiful life - Akhil Pyla

“ My prayers are with the family and know that he will be missed dearly. He loved to talk about his family and share what they did on vacation, what was happening on the farm, what the boys were doing in sports, boy scouts and scholastic achievements. He was a good guy and a great one to work with. God has an angel and one that will keep the order in heaven. God bless you Jerry and tell Mom hi and wish i could have met her for i would tell her she did a great job raising him.
