“ Being in the company of Germaine and George is always a treat. Germaine always had a smile in her eyes and on her face. Her smile was one that reached deep down into the soul and spread outwards, showing people that you were with someone who experienced and shared joy in each moment she was with you.

She and George were members of our Third Thursday Lunch Bunch for years. Each time we gathered, there would be extra food that we would take home or share with others. Germaine LOVED ice cream. We would always arrange for extra ice cream for her to take home.

We always teased her about her bright red lipstick! It never smudged. She could put it on perfectly even without a mirror. When I visited her from the church, I would look for her smile and the bright red lipstick. She never disappointed me! She was a beautiful woman and always will be in my memories of her! God's many blessings to you all!
