“ My thoughts and prayers go out to Glen's family. Especially Lindsey, Zach, Cole and Mollie and his parents - Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Graham. I had the honor . . . of being a part of Glen's "life" during his COLAS III executive experience a few years ago. During this intensive executive development experience I got to know Glen quite well. We had many talks and discussions in many different venues of: his "Midwest" growing up; his love for his work but most importantly his love for his family. We talked often about "out living your life." Well, I would have to say he has done that . . even in the short stay he had on this earth. Zach, Cole and Mollie - ask a lot of questions about your dad over the next few years. The answers you will find will take you far. Healing peace be with you Lanny NC State University

“ Having Glen as a brother-in-law was a true honor. He was a good man, a wonderful husband and a loving father. Watching Glen & Lindsey beat the odds by having not one, but three children was a true miracle. Glen, without a doubt, enjoyed every minute with his family. His legacy will live on in Zach, Cole, & Molly. He & Lindsey made countless memories with the kids on their vacations, holidays & birthdays. Glen never missed the kids' activities. He was an extremely proud father. We are so proud of him for the strength he displayed throughout his illness over the past 6 months. Glen can rest assured that the kids will be taken care of & that they will never forget him. He was a fortunate man to have a support system from his mom & dad, Lindsey's mom & dad, Heather & Ben along with Sam, Amanda & us. Glen & Lindsey's friends are amazing & their kind words & gestures are a reflection of the type of people they surrounded themselves with. Glen, you will be missed & we thank you for being a part of our family. We know you will spread your wings & watch over Lindsey & the kids until they see you again in heaven. May God bless you & may you forever be in our hearts.

“ Dear Graham Family, We want to tell you all how deeply sorry we are for your loss of such a good and gentle man. We know Glen was a devoted son, husband, and father to his children, and he cared about people in ways that words simply can't describe. Our prayers are with you all and we especially want to remember Lindsey and the children for they have endured so very much. We pray God's comforting presence be felt to you all in remarkable ways in the days, months, and years ahead. Your friends in Christ, Jeff & Susan Long

“ I am truly sorry to hear of the loss of Glen, I have know him for the last 6 years and loved doing business with him. He was one of those guys that enjoyed what he did and was very good at it. On the golf outings that we did, he always found time to talk about his wife and kids. He will be truly missed in the industry that he worked in.

“ Please accept my deepest sympathy for I too know the pain of losing someone you love. May your family find comfort as I have in knowing that our loving heavenly father promises us that very soon he will 'swallow up death forever, and certainly wipe the tears from all faces.' (Isaiah 25:8) What a wonderful day that will be!
