

Glenda Wilson

October 16, 2009

PADUCAH, Ky. -- Glenda Catherin Estes Wilson, 90, of Paducah died Friday, Oct. 16, 2009, at 8:50 a.m., with her family. She was a resident of Culpepper Place Assisted Living. Mrs. Wilson attended Will Mayfield Baptist College in Marble Hill, Mo., and nurses training at Morningside Hospital in Tulsa, Okla., before she married. She was co-founder of a family-owned automotive parts distribution business. She taught Sunday school for 32 years at First Baptist Church in Paducah, where she was an active member. She continued to teach Bible classes after she was unable to attend church. She considered her greatest achievement studying and teaching the Bible. She supported many charities and churches in the area. Mrs. Wilson is survived by a daughter, Dr. Karen Dodson and her husband, Maury Dodson, of Grand Rivers, Ky.; a son, James Bradley Wilson and his wife, Nancy Wilson, of Fruitland; three granddaughters, Tracey Dodson Buchanan of Paducah, Anne Wilson of Salem, Va., and Mary Pautler of Kerrville, Texas; and two grandsons, Dr. Jim Dodson of Bend, Ore., and Dr. James B. Wilson of Windermere, Fla. She is also survived by 12 great-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews. She was preceded in death by her parents, Mary Myrtle Hughes Estes and Willis Gay Estes; two brothers, Peter G. Estes and Leonard H. Estes; and a granddaughter, Mary Elizabeth Dodson. A private graveside service for family members will be at 11 a.m. Monday at Memorial Park Cemetery in Cape Girardeau. Expressions of sympathy may take the form of contributions to your favorite church. Local arrangements by Ford and Sons Funeral Home.

“ Karen, I was so sorry to hear of your Mothers death. I remember her so well at the First Baptist Church. She was a very gracious lady. I was also sorry to hear of the loss of your granddaughter. I have missed you at our Tiger reunions. I missed one in 2001(my f-i-l passed away). Hope to see you at our next one. My prayers go out to you and your family during this time of grief. God Bless you.

“ Karen, I was so sorry to hear of your Mothers passing. And, also, to hear of the loss of your Granddaughter. I remember your mon so well from the First Baptist Church. She was a very gracious lady. I haven't seen you at any of our reunions but I did miss one in 2002(my f-i-l passed away) Hope you and your family are doing okay. It hard to loose a parent. God Bless you.
