“ We share your grief. Not knowing you personally, we felt we knew you thru your loving mother and mother-in-law Billie Hiles. My husband has pastored her for many months as she has faithfully attended our church. We love and appreciate her so much and she conveyed her love for Glynn and your family many times, over and over again...a truly special son-in-law, husband, father, and grandfather...Glynn will be missed. We have prayed faithfully for your family and will keep you in our prayers thru this next part of your journey. God bless you all. Bud and Karen Everett

“ *To my sweet cousin Sheila James
In memory of her husband Glynn James*

Wings of a Dove

*He slumped over and his breath was gone
His next breath was at Heavens throne
Carried to heaven on wings of a dove
Jesus said Glynn you learned to love
When he left, some of me left too
I know he is happy but I am so blue
Memories leaping in my heart for joy
When we met, Glynn was just a boy
Glynn was happy on our family farm
Cattle in the field hay in the barn
A good husband and father too
Friends he had not and not a few
Bennie and Neva three boys they had
Bennie Daryl, Travis and Glynn good lads
Glynn and Sheila had a boy and a girl
That's when their life began to whirl
Holly and Chad made life so much fun
They really enjoyed the daughter and son
Glynn sang and played his nice guitar
Told those kids you ain't moving too far
They all stuck together through thick and thin
Love is the word when you think of Glynn
In loving memory of my cousin

“ The memory that comes to mind is concerning Glynn Dale and his brother Travis. What a mess the three boys were when they were younger. He loved to ride in Travis' car. And get into trouble together. But boys will be boys. I love all three of you boys. Ravells.
