“ What a fantastic Christian brother and friend as I think back to the good old days of retail. He was deep, yet could share a shallow joke like the best of them. A man of few words, but important words.

“ Always came down and played basketball with Greg in his driveway in Junior High/High School. He was quite a good shot! Should have played for the state championship team in 80! Ate lunch with him in the school cafeteria. NEVER had an ill word to say about anything or anybody! Always saw the good side of things.
