“ I remember Friday nights at the skating rink in younger days, Guy could really skate! Later in life, visiting with him and Kay, and working with him, he was always so nice, and had such a quick humor about him. Smiley was a nickname I heard often at work. He will truly be missed by all that knew him. My prayers for his family and friends!

“ Guy loved to teach and even sometimes challenge you. This money stacking game took me forever but he just laughed with me every time it fell. But I was determined that I was going to do it! I will always remember his quick and beautiful smile, his wit and loyalty (which doesn't even touch the surface of who he was as a person).
