“ Hannah was a great lady in my book. I can remember when I first meet her. I didn't know her and she didn't know me and she said something smart to me (as a joke) and I said something smart to her (as a joke). One of the Cafeteria workers told Hannah that she had found her match. Our friend begun that day. I have grown to love her as my mom. I can remember too that her sister Juanita had given me her phone number so I can check on her. When I called her, I called her from work and it showed up as ABM Security Services on her caller ID. So she picked up the and let me tell you I got her good until I started laughed and my laugh gave me away. Of course she got a kick out of it. To the the family you all are in my prayers and I love you all too. I will miss her very much from Hannah oven baked son. Wavis Jordan
