“ We were saddened to hear of Harold's passing. He is our neighbor and, as everyone has said, one of the kindest men around. Even though we didn't get to spend a lot of time with Harold and his wife, I am glad for the small conversations we did have. I've told everyone about his kindness and work ethic. He will be dearly missed. Our thoughts are with you, Mrs. Schmitt, and your family.

“ I was fortunate to have met and visited with the Major a couple of times. He was a fine man and a great patriot and American. We desperately need more men like him in our country. We all suffer loss with his passing. My sincere condolences to all his family. May our Lord comfort you during this time of sorrow and loss. Steve TxHP Ret.
