“ Once, I remember Mr. Moore had me hold onto a pig while he gave it a vaccination. Like I was told, I stood over it and grabbed his ears, (the pig's). The pig didn't like that much and squealed and squealed. The second the shot went in the pig's butt, the pig stopped squealing. Harold Jr. and Senior thought that was pretty funny. I still remember Mrs. Moore's gravy at breakfast. Harold was always nice to me. Sorry for your loss. Soren Petrek
