“ Ha... Oh my I have many memories I can share after all I met Russ when I was about 11. So that makes it something like 52 years. Wow!

*Russ was my brother-in-law, He married my sister, Beverly. Together they had Dianne and Janet. I remember when Beverly first brought Russ home. Yep he was a charmer in his Missouri type way... and I learned a few things from Russ over the years like how to ride a horse, what chiggers are, that it takes more water to fill a bath instead of a taking a shower, what okra is, a lot about truck driving, farm living, and that I never want to eat squirrel! Yes lots of memories but I guess the best one is that his Nic-Name for me was "little Bit"... that never changed (I was the little sister). also that he made it a point to call my home in 2005 after the loss of our youngest daughter. And that meant a lot. Warmest wishes of peace to all
