“ With great sadness I wish to send my deepest sympathy to all of Ms. Luebbers' loved ones. Although I haven't met any of you except one granddaughter, I knew Ms. Luebbers quite well and considered her a close friend. She was a fine lady and always made one feel so very welcome. I will miss visiting with her and bringing her some of our country eggs and veggies. I regret not visiting more often for I know she enjoyed the company and that she considered the fresh eggs a special treat! We've lost a very sweet and caring lady who I'm sure will be greatly missed and remembered by all of us.
Sincerely, Barbara Drew

“ Shirley and Charles, I am so sorry for your loss. Mrs. Luebbers was blessed by God to have given her a long life and a wonderful family to care for and to love her. When we lose a loved one, like your mother, we mourn and grieve for our loss. But, Mrs. Luebbers placed her faith in our Lord Jesus Christ as her Savior and Lord. And because of that, she is right now rejoicing in Heaven with Jesus. What a great day for her!! Be happy and at peace for your mother. Celebrate her life and the many great memories you have of her. You are in my thoughts and prayers. Hal Majors

“ Dear Shirley, Charles & families, Warmest, caring thoughts with you all at this time. Shirley, your mom had to have been an absolute jewel to have raised children who raised children who . . . well, you understand the sentiment . . . children who all have such a wonderful grounding and are so committed to making the world a better place for so many others. She has left a wonderful legacy! I'm so sorry for your loss, but am so glad to know and love so many of Mrs. Luebbers descendants! Cherrie
