

Heather Miget-Spear

September 17, 1975 - February 21, 2024

Heather Nicole Miget-Spear, 48, of Cape Girardeau died Wednesday, February 21, 2024 at Saint Francis Medical Center.

She was born September 17, 1975 in Perryville, MO to Kenneth C. Miget and Charlotte A. (Lukefahr) Miget.

Heather married Don Spear on November 23, 2013.

Heather served people throughout her life. She shared her smile, her cackling laughter, and witty sense of humor with many through serving as a waitress, a bartender, an ambulance EMT, and an EMT and security supervisor at the casino in Cape Girardeau.

Even though she did not always enjoy cooking in her early years, she loved cooking dumplings and pie with her Grandma Lukefahr. It was her Grandma Miget that sparked her love of fishing.

Heather loved animals and spent time volunteering at Mac's Mission, a shelter for dogs with special needs. Her other great love was her family and friends. Spending time with those she loved was what she did. Heather had an infectious laugh and smile with the ability to make anyone she met feel special and loved, like they were her best friend.

Heather is survived by her husband, Don; son, Garet George Miget; her parents Ken Miget and Charlotte (Lukefahr) Miget; sister, Gretta (John) Lieser; brother, Luke (Sarah) Miget; nieces and nephews, William Lieser, Raena Lieser, Matthew Miget and Claire Miget.

Heather was a beautiful person, inside and out.... Very outspoken but yet very kind! We got to know one another at the casino, instantly we became friends....I looked forward to talking to her because she always knew how to lift a person's spirit and bring laughter to any conversation... The casino just won't be the same without her there, she will truly be missed by many! Love you Heather, you were a true angel here on earth....

“ I had the pleasure of being her Paramedic partner and friend when she was an EMT. She was selfless and cared so much for people. If she wasn't using her hands to heal, she was using her smile and laugh instead. She has an amazing personality and sense of humor. We should all be proud of the impact she made in this world. She will be missed.

“ I will always remember her amazing laugh! It was so contagious! I remember her love of Tweety Bird & me sharing that love with her. I remember she used to take me out to her parents & I was able to ride horses with her & Luke. I remember the vacation they took to Florida & we were able to hang out. She constantly told me every time I seen her or talked to her that she was proud of the woman & momma I became. ❤️ I love you sweet lady & will miss you tremendously.

“ I can't share just one memory. I have so many of this woman. We laughed so hard together in the smoke shack or her garage we almost (ok, sometimes did LOL) peed ourselves 🤦 We been there for each other thru marriage parties, deaths, births.... Endless memories. I'm so glad I knew this woman. She made life a better place at times just with a "Hey Boo Boo" and a hug. That hug. I'm gonna miss. I love you forever Heather and til we meet again, save me a seat up there.
