“ I was lucky to know Helen as family. She was always welcoming with her gentle smile and attention. My favorite memory is her laugh, a kind, reserved, elegant one that was generously given. She is at peace with her Father and her husband. Prayers for peace and comfort to all who loved her.

Helen was such a wonderful, loving and caring Christian lady whom I have known since her employment at Famous-Barr. However, my strongest connection w/ Helen was through The Church Christ in which we were both members. Helen's beautiful smile, precious laugh, her most sincere Christian faith, I will ALWAYS REMEMBER. She was loved by all who were fortunate enough to have known her. Dear Helen, now you shall rest in total peace and comfort in God's Paradise reserved for the Saved. In Him, Lynne 🙏🌸
