“ Dear Rod, I am sorry to hear about your mother's death. You and I were just talking that she was had a bad day but was doing better. I cannot imagine the pain of losing your mother. Lynn, Trent and I extend our deepest sympathies to you and your family. You and your family will always be in my prayers. --Mark Hillier

“ You all have our sincere condolences. I am just sorry that my physical condition keeps me from attending the services. I will remember her always as my aunt that taught me to eat properly, chewing my food 21 times. She was always stern, but with that little smirk that I will always cherish. I know she is in a better place now. I will be at peace knowing my "Aunt Helen" will always be watching over us all.
