

Helen Maxine Rose

April 23, 1928 - November 15, 2017

Helen M. Rose, 89, of Cape Girardeau passed away on Wednesday, November 15, 2017 at the Lutheran Home in Cape Girardeau.

Helen was born April 23, 1928 in East St. Louis, Illinois daughter of Swope and Marie Davis Tallent. The family moved to Jackson, Missouri when Helen was a child. She graduated from Jackson High School and attended Southeast Missouri State University. Helen worked in the health care field, first at The Surgical Clinic then in Medical Records at St. Francis Medical Center.

Helen was an active member of the River City Business and Professional Women's Club, attending many national and international meetings and conferences. She was a lifelong member of Centenary United Methodist Church where she sang in the church choir; was a charter member of the Clipper Sunday School Class; was active in UMW and Circle Groups; taught Sunday School and served on the Church Administrative Council.

Helen is survived by two daughters, Terry (Terry) Crowell and Barbara Narsh both of Cape Girardeau; one son, Steve (Regina Shea) Rose of Laporte, Colorado. She is also survived by four grandchildren, Cynda (Chuck) Koch of Jackson, Joe (Rachael) Narsh of Weybridge, United Kingdom, Jason (Casey) Crowell of Cape Girardeau, Josh (Theresa) Crowell of Jackson and eleven great-grandchildren.

A private committal service was held at Cape County Memorial Park Mausoleum. The family extends its gratitude to the Hospice Staff at Southeast Hospital and the staff of the Lutheran Home.

Memorials may be sent to Centenary United Methodist Church, 300 N. Ellis, Cape Girardeau, MO 63701 or Southeast Hospice, 1701 Lacey Street, Cape Girardeau, MO 63701.

Ford & Sons Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.
