“ My mother, Marybelle Grossheider, counted your mother as her friend. It made me smile today to think of them reunited and catching up on their families. God bless you.

“ I met Helen and Jo when I moved in across the street from them at Cape Lacroix nine yrs ago. They were both great ladies and we remained friends all these yrs. I often visited them at the Lutheran home but I spend my summers on Mackinac Island and so was not home when either one of them passed away. I will remember them with great fondness. They brightened my day many times.
