“ Steve, We didn't hear about your dad and look it up online until today and the visitation and funeral were already over. So sorry to hear of his passing. Your parents were nice folks, and good to me years ago when I was a new bride that Chris brought home to southeast Missouri. We lived in a trailer at the beginning of 616 back then. My children looked forward to trick or treating at your parent's house over the years because they always had unique items laid away to give out to the neighborhood kids, especially our youngest, Abby. I think she and Sam Lowes looked forward to their visits with your dad as much as he looked to see them. Just know that he will be missed. The Weiss Family
