“ Our family lived next door to Howard and Helen Jo for 19 years, until we built a house in August of 2005. We have so many fond memories of them. We always considered them as part of our family. They would have done anything for us. In many ways they treated us like they would have treated their own kids. From the day we moved in when Helen Jo baked monkey bread for us, she continued to bake for us until the day we moved. I spent many hours sitting at the table visiting with Haelen Jo (as you know, Howard was usually bustling around the house or working outside, so he rarely sat with us). Though we chatted about just about everything (especially recipes), she loved to tell me stories about growing up with her family. With Howard, I'll always remember things like the time he had to come and get me off my roof when I was putting up Christmas lights (he never let me forget about that one!) to the time he helped me try to catch the squirrels that were eating my tomatoes. I'll always remember the pride Howard had in making his yard look nice, his love of his azaleas, His love of Toby and JP (Jo's Pup), but especially his love for Helen Jo. We will miss him as much as we miss Helen Jo. Our thoughts and prayers are with your family. With sadness, Tim, Kathi, Kari and Alex

“ I got to know Howard when he started volunteering at Southeast in the Oncology center at Southeast and would come to the pharmacy to pick up medications. When he started driving the shuttle and I was leaving for the day, he would always make a point to say hello or find out how my day went. We had many conversations about his illness and what I remember most, is that he never complained and was more concerned how I was doing. He was a very caring and all around nice guy. He will be missed.
