

Jack D. Johnson

April 29, 1930 - August 27, 2024

He was born April 29, 1930 in Cape Girardeau, Missouri to Elbert and Erma Johnson. Jack's greatest love was his family. He always kept them laughing with his stories, "dad" jokes, and impeccable comedic timing.

Jack was a dedicated husband and father. While Jack spent his younger years in Cape Girardeau, he spent many years in St. Louis, where he raised his family.

Throughout his long life, Jack had many roles and talents. He served in the army, he was a skilled carpenter, a route salesman, a sales manager, a farmer, real estate agent and property owner. He was not afraid to take on new adventures, and he was always successful.

Some of his fondest memories were summers spent on the beach with his five granddaughters in Texas.

He preceded in death by his loving wife of 54 years, Barbara Leach; parents; one brother, Gene (Opal) Johnson; granddaughter, Cyndi Johnson.

Jack is survived by his devoted wife, Kaye; daughter, Melinda (Kevin) Selsor; son, Stephen Johnson; three step-children, Scott, Stephen and Dia Welker; grandchildren, Laura (Tretton) Bilisland, Natalie (Katie) Selsor, Jackie (Andy) Davidson and Jodi (David) Johnson; great-grandchildren, Sophia, Scarlett, Nora, George, Andrew, Ella, Payge, Wyatt and great-great-grandchild, Camellia.

He was a member of Lynwood Baptist Church.
