

Jacob E. Cook

January 20, 2014

Jacob E. Cook, 34, a resident of St. Louis, passed away Monday, January 20, 2014 in St. Louis. He was born December 23, 1979 in Cape Girardeau, MO to Joe Cook and Kim (Wilson) Stewart. Jacob was a proud parent and devoted family man. He attended Calvary Church of St. Peters, Missouri and is remembered as a strong, kind hearted, loving, man and father. Jacob was a proficient HVAC technician for 10 years and worked throughout the St. Louis area. He had a great passion for the arts and was a talented musician. Jacob loved nature and being outdoors, especially fishing with his children. Playing video games with his son was also something that Jacob enjoyed very much. Jacob's laughter has touched the lives of many. He will never be forgotten. He is survived by his parents, Kim Stewart of Cape Girardeau, father, Joe Cook of Cape Girardeau; son, Phoenix Skye Simpson-Cook; daughter, Leiwyn Iris Cook; siblings, Johnny Stewart and Zachary Cook of Cape Girardeau, MO, A.J. Scherer of Marion, IL, and Erica Wilson-White of Saint Louis, MO; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins. Private services have already been held.

Tribute Wall

EN

“ Jacob was always a very sweet, caring and compassionate person. I am thinking about his family at this incredibly difficult time and my heart goes out to them. He will be missed by many people, knowing that he touched many lives throughout his life.

Emily Nolen - February 02, 2014 at 12:00 AM

BR

“ I remember most how gifted a musician and artist he was. I spoke to him years ago and he was very proud of his children and his present life. He was always so passionate about life and those around him. Thinking of the family now with well wishes.

Brandi - February 02, 2014 at 12:00 AM

MC

“ I don't have any words to tell you how stunned I was to hear about Jacob's death. My deepest sympathies are with you all!

Melanie Coy - February 02, 2014 at 12:00 AM