“ Wow...I thought missing you at Thanksgiving was difficult. Now that Christmas is just around the corner, it's even worse. I know that you are with Jesus, and that is what makes missing you bearable. So many wonderful Christmas memories of you.

“ Jacque will be missed. We worked together at the bank and have kept in touch. She liked to talk about her grandchildren, children and pets. She loved them all.

“ I am so sorry to hear about Jackie. I worked with her at the bank and will always remember her as the sweetest person and good friend. I think she will always be remembered with her "bangs" and cute disposition. My heart goes out to her family at this time and know you will be in our hearts and prayers at this time.

With great sympathy,
Debbie Newcomb

I have been friends with Jacquie's daughter Stacey since junior high. One night in high school after a night of behaving perfectly, Stacey and I were rushing to get home in time for our curfews. I was driving us in my parents' car. I pulled into Stacey's driveway to drop her off and after she got out of the car, I turned the wheel too far and smacked my parents' car right into the Lloyd family car. Stacey just sort of looked at me in disbelief and went into the house, and I drove home with part of my parents' front fender sort of halfway attached. Needless to say, my parents were not happy, but Jacquie was always nice to me even after that happened. We corresponded recently and I sent her some pictures of her granddaughter Emma hanging out on vacation with my daughter. She really enjoyed the pictures and was always very sweet to me. I am praying for her family to find comfort.

“ *I worked with Jackie at the Credit Bureau, she was wonderful. After we both left the CBS job we kept in touch. Every year we would exchange Christmas cards and each of us would write the other a note to catch up on our families. It was special, something that is just not normally done in this day and time. I will miss her, but most of all I will miss the notes about her family, that she loved so dearly. Good Bye old friend, I'll see you in heaven!
Much love to the family
