“ Great Grandpa Seabaugh was one of the most amazing people I've ever met in my life! Every special moment has been captured in the rocking chairs he has made. He treated us like family from day one. He cared for us like so many other. He prayed for us and we prayed for his family. He has the most beautiful daughter I've ever known. I hope I treat my daughter the same. Words don't express how I feel everyday my heart.

“ Praying God the Father gives you peace and comfort during this time. Knowing Bob is in the arms of his Shepherd and surrounded by those who have gone before helps, but we know we will all be reunited when we reach our final Rest. Bob will be there to greet you! I always remember being in their wedding party as a junior bridesmaid was wonderful. However, the smell in the car as we drove around town to the photographer is something I will never miss!! How Grandpa Grebing could eat Leimberger cheese is beyond me! So many memories of Bob's smiling face and twinkling eyes will keep him close to all of us.
