“ To all my cousins and their families my sincere condolences. As many of you may know Jim was always one of my favorite cousins. Even when I was a small girl I knew what a special and kind person he was. After we moved back to SE Missouri and when in Cape I always tried to run by and see him, especially after Alene died. The last time we visited was in January. God bless each and every one of you, but know that he is truly one of those God welcomed into heaven. I wish we could be there but we are currently out of state, and about 24 hours drive from Cape and won't be able to make it back in time. For those wondering who I am, I am Coltilda Wulfers (Jim's mom's) neice, daughter of Austin and Sylvia Seib.
