“ I had the privledge of knowing Jamie(as well.as her husband & two boys)for a long time. I believe when her two sons were in preschool & elementary school at Eagle Ridge Christian School where we both worked together. She was very caring and always helpful. I remember she always had a smile on her face no matter what was going on. I remember running into her at Walmart last summer in the checkout line. We talked for a good 10-15min about how she was doing. Even tho she was going threw I believe treatment she still had a smile on her face and talked positive about all she was going threw. She was a fighter threw it all and faught hard. I pray for her husband and boys during this time that God gives them Peace & comfort. She will be missed.

“ Jamie is my cousin. We were close when we were very young, then lived away from one another for most of our lives. No matter how long we were apart her love for me never waned. We were blessed with mothers who taught us Love is forever and family is everything. Jamie is so many good things. She is strong, brave, confident and she never ever gives up. I am grateful that she will be one of my Angel's till I see her again.
