“ We met Jane for the first time when volunteering for the FISH pantry. She took in the calls for food requests. She was the sweetest , kindest person ever, always so joyful . She loved being able to help people in need. We loved volunteering with her all of these many years, and will miss her for sure. May God Bless her . We extend our deepest sympathy to her Children, Grandchildren, and Greatgrandchild . God bless you all and help you through this difficult time
