

Jane D. McKeown

February 19, 2013

Jane Doughty McKeown, formerly of Cape Girardeau, passed away at the Farmington Presbyterian Manor on February 19, 2013. She was 88 years old. Jane was born in Cape Girardeau on October 25, 1924 to Harry and Louise (Meyer) Doughty. Jane was a bright woman and graduated Cape Central High School in 1941 at the age of 16. In her early years, she made sure her children had frequent library visits and that they did their homework. She was proud of the fact that her four eldest children were college graduates. She was an avid reader and crossword puzzle whiz. She was a member of Grace United Methodist Church of Cape Girardeau. For many years Jane was a devoted caretaker of Joe Pat, her son with Downs syndrome. He preceded her in death in 2004. While living at the Presbyterian Manor in Farmington, Jane made many new friends and lived out her life in peace. She leaves four children: Jane (Don) Neumeyer of Madison, WI, Jim (Nena) McKeown of Fort Worth, TX, Susan (Paul) Watkins of Ballwin, MO, and Steve (Darla) McKeown of Herrin, IL. She had 8 grandchildren and 7 great-grandchildren. She was preceded by six siblings: Harry Doughty, William Doughty, Morris "Dutch" Doughty, Dorothy Koch, Florence Duschell, and her identical twin, Janet Gaines. There will be no visitation. Burial will be in the Doughty plot in Fairmont Cemetery. A private graveside service will be held. Memorials may be sent to Presbyterian Hospice of Mid America, 412 Cayce St., Farmington, MO 63640. All the family wishes to thank the Presbyterian Manor staff and Hospice services for their loving care of their mother. The rest of the children wish to thank their sister Susan for her special attention to the quality of Mother's life in her final years.
