“ Dear Allen, Mom and Dad told me of your mother's death. I'm sorry for your loss. Right now, Mom and Dad (Dr. Charles and Linda Cox) still live in your grandmother's neighborhood and we think of you all when we drive past her house. God bless you and your family, Christy Cox McKay

“ Bev and I first met Janice on the wedding day of Allen and Amy in Columbia. We had dinner together which are always too brief. We met Vivian and Janice's brother and sister as well a niece and nephew. I can tell the character of a mother through her son, Allen, high integrity, honest, hard working, studious, a deep faith in Christ. A superb husband and a delightful caring for Luciano. He could only learn that from a mother with the same qualities. It is difficult to ask for more from Janice who devoted her life to Allen and God the Almighty She is now with her creator and we will continue to pray for her and the fine family she left for us to enjoy in her memory Joe and Bev Giangiacomo
