

Janie Muckleroy Wright

August 20, 2013

Janie Muckleroy Wright, 92, of St. Louis, died at home Tuesday, August 20, 2013. Mrs. Wright was born Nov. 13, 1920 in Nacogdoches, TX. Mrs. Wright was an educator for 50 years. She retired from Southeast Missouri State University in 1991 at age 70. She was a teacher and librarian in Texas and Missouri. Following her retirement, she moved to St. Louis in 1999 to assist in family rental properties. She enjoyed meeting and helping people. Her mantra was "What can I do for you, friend?" Mrs. Wright was the wife of the late Dr. Floyd K. Wright, professor of education at SEMO. She is survived by a son, Floyd Jr., daughter, Janice and a grandson, Ross, all of St. Louis. She has many relatives and friends in Texas, Missouri, and around the world who will miss her. Burial will be private. A memorial celebration for family and friends is planned in St. Louis on Friday, September 6th from 5-8 p.m. at 4950 Southwest Ave. (Southwest Garden Neighborhood office).

Tribute Wall

EB

“ Our condolences to you, Floyd Jr. and Janice.

Eldon and Bonnie Bethare - May 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM

SC

“ Friends of Janie Wright at the Cape Senior Center express their sincere sympathy. Janie and Floyd were a very vital and important part of the Cape Senior Center for many years serving as volunteers in many capacities. We missed Janie so much when she moved away to St. Louis and over time we lost communication with her. We are so sorry for the loss of her, but remember her with very fond memories as she went about her duties serving others at the Center. To the family, bless you in your grief and sorrow, and know that Janie and Floyd live on in our memories. With sincere sympathy.

Susan McClanahan, Administrator, Cape Senior Cente - May 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM

AC

“ It's been years since I've seen Janie. We were friends through AAUW in Cape Girardeau and I missed her when she moved to St. Louis. Please accept my sincere condolences for your lose. She was a wonderful person.

Avon Crocker - May 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM

PM

“ I worked with Janie for many years at Kent Library. She was a kind and generous lady. Please accept my sympathy at her passing.

Pam Risenhoover Mattox - May 12, 2015 at 12:00 AM